Women, Hormones and the Menstrual Cycle

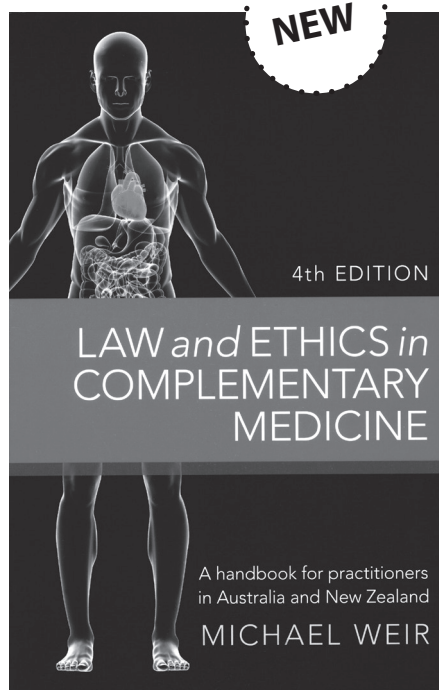

3rd edition, hardcover

Ruth Trickey ND, Adjunct Senior lecturer Southern Cross University NSW, Fellow NHAA

Women, Hormones & the Menstrual Cycle is a definitive guide to natural medicine and women's health, focusing on health complaints from adolescence through to menopause and beyond. Ruth Trickey, with practitioners from the Melbourne Holistic Health Group and other contributors, provides comprehensive information and treatment protocols based on many years of research and clinical experience. This 3rd edition of Women, Hormones & the Menstrual Cycle has been fully revised providing up-to-date research on current evidenced based natural medicine alongside more conventional medical approaches. A range of gynaecological complaints are discussed including pre-menstrual syndrome (PMS), endometriosis, polycystic ovarian syndrome (PCOS), amenorrhoea and menopausal symptoms.

Law and Ethics in Complementary Medicine

4th edition

Michael Weir, Professor of Law, Bond University Queensland

Established as the most widely used reference in the field, Law and Ethics in Complementary Medicine is a comprehensive book for professionals, students and researchers. Covering a wide range of complementary modalities, it deals with legal and ethical issues in clinical relationships and provides practical guidelines for setting up and running a professional practice. Michael Weir systematically outlines various aspects including legal obligations to clients, consumer legislation and complaints processes, professional indemnity insurance, dealing with employees and the role of codes of ethics. "This fourth edition is an essential reference for all natural health care practitioners. As well as the comprehensive information from earlier editions, it contains important updates regarding the new National Health Practitioner legislation and recent consumer law cases." Adjunct Associate Prof Kerry Bone
